PREMIUM AGAVE SELECTION

CLASE AZUL ULTRA	90,000
Some tequilas were made to be better than the rest, clase azul ultra extra añejo is one such tequila. Aged for 5 years, this tequila delivers flavours that grace the palate with the taste of pure luxury.
Nose
This tequila is dark amber in colour, extremely seedy, with a generous body and intense aromas. The rich, sweet aroma of this tequila has warm notes of maple syrup, hazelnut, and cherry topped off with a hint of sherry.
Taste
Strong notes of sweet, delicate oak come through in the flavour of this potent luxury tequila along with crème caramel, and cinnamon.
CLASE AZUL ANEJO	29,000
Clase azul añejo is an ultra-premium tequila, made from 100% nine-year-old traditionally roasted agave, rested for 25 months, and packaged in a traditional talavera-style decanter with a 24-carat gold charm on the neck.
Nose
The nose is layered with aromas of Mexican vanilla, cinnamon, apples and almonds and surrounded by caramel aromas from the slow-cooked agave.
Taste
Cooked agave flavors with touches of vanilla, caramel, cinnamon, cloves, toasted hazelnut and various woods through the finish.
CODIGO ORIGEN EXTRA ANEJO	12,000
An extra old tequila that presents pronounced notes of charred oak and cooked agave alongside rich tannins extracted from the cask (as well as plentiful notes of dried raisin and prune). Aromas of spice, vanilla, caramel and sweet oak that lend to a robust palate, teeming with flavors of dried fig and cinnamon.
Nose
Old wood and the sweetness of cooked agave are prevalent. These notes are underpinned by caramel and just the slightest hint of vanilla, thanks to the length in the cask.
Taste
There is a definite bit of oak tannin in Origen, which dries the mouth out slightly, yet somehow there also manages to be a little bit of oiliness to it, too. It sticks to your gums and teeth and it's easy to imagine it coating your throat when you swallow. There are distinct flavors of dried fruits that mix well with, again, the sweetness of cooked agave.
